GLORIA INVICTA.

The ground shakes, the skies rumble, you think you hear a storm brewing, but you're wrong.

It's not dark clouds gathering, not thunder rolling down from the hills. It's the might of the Legio III Augusta, a living tide of iron and discipline, moving as one toward the city that dares to defy Rome. At the head of the host ride three Roman's. Three wills, sharpened by war. One sees the battlefield like a map, one is hunger given flesh, one is silence and patience,

With each spin you grow stronger, gather your forces, sharpen your purpose. They may have walls of stone, but you have the might of Rome.
